Plane Seating

Current Algorithm
- "Plus" passengers choose their seats
- Coach passengers get randomly assigned
  - splits up families

1) Allow all passengers to choose their seats, not splitting up families
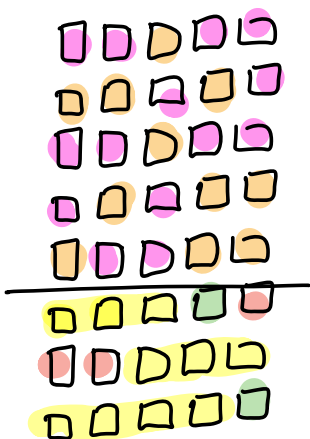

Give a $ incentive to people who choose an unassigned seat — Too Standard?

2) "Plus" passengers pay more choose seats

"Basic" passengers get assigned a seat randomly

Family Section
- seat parties together automatically
- Fill empty seats with clowns and mascots
- "Basic" passengers might get seated here!

3) Silent Auction

Each person pays a base price for a seat

then there "bid" on any seat they want.

Ebay style, they will only pay a penny more than the next highest bid

Losers get assigned an random seat.
